Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A Mason Burglar.

"Are you a Mason?"

This query, uttered with all the glad surprise of a child who has found a lost treasure, rang out in the bedroom of an imposing three story brownstone house at No. 137 Bainbridge street, Brooklyn, occupied by George E. Gale, his wife and two children. The hour was 5 a. m. last Monday.

A few moments before, the questioner, a handsome, well-knit burglar of an improved Raffles type, had entered the house at the rear and rather unpleasantly had attracted the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Gale toward himself with the conventional tools of his trade—a dark lantern and a revolver.

An interesting conversation between Mr. Gale, his wife and the gentlemanly intruder, conducted in well modulated tones, relative to the transfer of certain properties belonging to the Gales, had preceded the thrilling moment at which this narrative opens. Mr. Gale had just begged to be allowed to keep a ring he was wearing because it bore a Masonic design and had greater sentimental than intrinsic value.

"Let me keep it, wont you?" he urged, "It is a Masonic ring. It can do you no good."

It was then that the man behind the gun and the lantern asked:

"Are you a Mason?"

"I am," replied Mr. Gale, blinking in the dazzling light, adding with as much dignity as his recumbent position in bed would permit:

"Are you a Mason?"

"I am," replied the burglar.

"What!" exclaimed Mrs. Gale, her astonishment overcoming her terror. "You a Mason and a burglar?"

The unconscious brutality of Mrs. Gale's direct question discomfited the intruder. Every action betrayed him as a beaten man. The superb confidence in his own powers exhibited when he first entered the room was gone.

He hung his head. His lips trembled. His words, when they came, were broken and uttered hesitatingly.

"Yes—Madam. It—is—true. I am a Mason and a—a"—

"Come!. My money is in my coat pocket there. Take it and get out." interrupted Mr. Gale.

"No," replied the stranger, shaking his head. "You may keep the ring and the money too. I want nothing from a brother Mason. But will you give me your word as a Master Mason that neither you nor your wife will get up until I have been gone from the house five minutes?"

The pledge was made and with a quiet, "I beg your pardon for all the trouble I have caused you," the unbidden guest was gone.

In telling the story yesterday, Mrs. Gale insisted her burglar was "a perfect gentlemen."

The "gentleman" evidently thought twice over his good resolution. On his way out he took silver and ivories to the value of $150, and exchanged hat and coat with Mr. Gale.

"The man came in during the thunder storm," said Mr. Gale, "and was a most determined sort of a burglar until I told him I was a Mason. I am, however, loathe to believe he is a member of my lodge. He certainly made a wonderful change of front when he saw the ring and his questions and replies were properly made, according to the lodge rules."

Down With the Breakfast Foods.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson's article in McClure's scoring the advocates of patent breakfast foods has caused no end of comment and discussion. He decries vegetarianism in general, not because it is harmful, but because it is no better than anything else. He admits that the vegetable diet will maintain life in health and vigor, as nearly one-half of the human race is supported in this way, but he thinks that there is no evidence that shows that there is any inherent superiority in the vegetarian diet, as there is none of superiority in the pure animal diet. His advice is simply to eat slowly and a little of everything. He is particularly critical of the prevalent breakfast food habit, and points out that the claims of their nutritive value as compared with meat or sugar or fat is misleading, because when prepared as a mush for the table they contain a large quantity of water. To taste good is nature's stamp of approval on a food.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefitted by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F Creighton & Co.

WORKING WOMEN

Their Hard Struggle Made Easier—Interesting Statements by a Young Lady in Boston and One in Nashville, Tenn.

All women work; some in their homes, some in church, and some in the whirl of society. And in stores, mills and shops tens of thousands are on the never-ceasing treadmill, earning their daily bread.

All are subject to the same physical laws; all suffer alike from the same physical disturbance, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drifts them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, tumors, ulceration, falling and displacements or perhaps irregularity or suppression, causing backache, nervousness, irritability and lassitude.

They especially require an invigorating, sustaining medicine which will strengthen the female organism and enable them to bear easily the fatigues of the day, to sleep well at night, and to rise refreshed and cheerful.

How distressing to see a woman struggling to earn a livelihood or perform her household duties when her back and head are aching, she is so tired she can hardly drag about or stand up, and every movement causes pain, the origin of which is due to some derangement of the female organism.

Miss F. Orser, of 14 Warrenton Street, Boston, tells women how to avoid such suffering; she writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered misery for several years with female irregularities. My back ached; I had bearing-down pains, and frequent headaches; I could not sleep and could hardly drag around. I consulted two physicians without relief, and as a last resort, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to my surprise, every ache and pain left me. I gained ten pounds and am in perfect health."

Miss Pearl Ackers, of 327 North Summer Street, Nashville, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered with painful periods, severe backache, bearing-down pains, pains across the abdomen; was very nervous and irritable, and my trouble grew worse every month.

"My physician failed to help me and I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found it was doing me good. All my pains and aches disappeared, and I no longer fear my monthly periods."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for all these troubles. It strengthens the proper muscles, and displacement with all its horrors will no more crush you.

Backache, dizziness, fainting, bearing-down pains, disordered stomach, moodiness, dislike of friends and society—all symptoms of the one cause—will be quickly dispelled, and it will make you strong and well.

You can tell the story of your sufferings to a woman, and receive helpful advice free of cost. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years she has, under her direction and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge.

Averse to Missionaries.

A Brahmin missionary to America, Marayan Krishna, filling the pulpit of All Souls' Episcopal Church, in Kansas City, by invitation Sunday evening, said in the course of a talk:

"We're overstocked with Christian missionaries. Ninety per cent. of those we have are senseless. Furthermore, we don't want your religion and your Holy Book. We have more religion of our own than we know what to do with, a surplus that we'd like to export. So I pray you Americans, keep your so-called missionaries at home. If you want to Christianize us send us some men that are qualified to teach, philosophers that know their own Scriptures. Until then the Vedas, our four books of philosophy, are good enough for us. Show me a country where missionaries have been that is prosperous. It doesn't exist. There were no families, no plague in India before the English invasion. I am here in the interests of India for India, not Indir for England."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 2, 1906.

THE information given out at the War Department does not seem to be reliable. Yesterday it was denied that any authority had been given by that department for the military escort which is accompanying Father Sherman, son of the late Gen. W. T. Sherman, on his "march to the sea." In fact, it was stated at the department that the authorities in Washington had received no information relative to the matter other than that furnished by the newspapers. President Roosevelt, however, last night commanded that the military escort which left Chattanooga on Monday to escort Rev. Father Sherman over the route of his father's march to the sea should return to its post. The press dispatches yesterday announcing that Father Sherman had been given a military escort at Fort Oglethorpe to accompany him on his excursion, caused much disturbance. General Bell and other staff officials declared the escort was not warranted. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, called at the War Department and entered a vigorous protest against any armed body of troops marching through Georgia on such an expedition, and a telegram was at once sent to Brigadier General Duvall, commanding the Department of the Gulf, with headquarters at Atlanta, asking by what authority the escort had been given to Father Sherman. General Duvall replied in a long dispatch saying that Father Sherman was accompanied by two officers and eight troopers of the Twelfth Cavalry, the purpose being to give the officers an opportunity to study General Sherman's campaign and at the same time to compliment the son of General Sherman. This explanation was sent to the White House, but did not satisfy the President, who at once directed that the detachment be recalled to Fort Oglethrope. General Sherman's "march to the sea" is a blot upon the history of this country, as his path was marked by fire, waste and desolation. Its very recollection is a nightmare to the people of South Carolina and Georgia.

YESTERDAY (May Day) brought with it considerable turbulence throughout the civilized world. In European cities red flag socialistic demonstrations characterized the occasion. The storm centre seemed to hover over Paris and had not an army been turned into the French capital, rioters would have taken possession of the city. There were violent socialist and anarchist demonstrations in Toulon and other French cities. In London 8,000 men and women participated in labor demonstrations In Berlin there were 62 socialist meetings. Five thousand socialists paraded in Buda-Pest. There were demonstrations in Madrid but they were not of a violent nature. Processions and riots occurred in Warsaw, Lodz and other places in Russian Poland. There were no riots in American cities, but a number of strikes were begun, including 1,000 men in building trades of Boston, 700 iron-workers in Pittsburg, 400 carpenters in Indianapolis, 500 planing-mill workers in Cincinnati, 3,000 molders in Chicago and 300 cabinet-makers in Philadelphia. A strike of longshoremen and vessel employees tied up the shipping in the ports of Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Buffalo. Fifty police of Chicago drew revolvers on a May Day parade of 200 anarchists and refused to permit the marchers to unfurl red flags. In by-gone years May Day was celebrated in an innocent manner. Maypole dances and picnicking were interesting incidents, and young and old alike participated in the festivities. It is not so now. Instead of being anticipated with pleasure, as was once the case, the time has come when its approach causes dread among the lovers of peace.

WHEN Dewey returned home after the capture of Manila and while sailing up New York harbor, he innocently, but truthfully, said to a friend standing beside him on the ship that he did not understand why the people were making such an adoo over him as any captain in his fleet could have accomplished just as much as he had at Manila—realizing then that he had but sunk a number of old hulks and silenced a number of dilapidated and out of date forts. But now he is the admiral, and in a speech in Washington last night, on the occasion of the eighth anniversary of the battle of Manila, he said: "Who could fail with officers and men like I had? I could have licked the world with them." All of which is vainglory and boastfulness—ill becoming the admiral of the navy.

THIS seems to be a productive season for "heroes." During the past few days two "hero" presidential candidates have sprung into existence— Hobson and Funston—who think that the services they rendered their country should be "recognized" by making them ruler of the nation. There will be a frost in less than six months.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, May 2.

It is believed that the Senate committee on privileges and elections stands 7 to 6 in favor of the general proposition that Reed Smoot, U. S. Senator from Utah, because of his official connection with the Mormon Church, is not a proper man to be a senator. But the opponents of Smoot are divided among themselves on the question of whether he can be excluded or should he be expelled. Mr. Bailey takes the position that as Smoot is now a regularly constituted member of the Senate he cannot be excluded and that the proper method of procedure is to adopt a resolution of expulsion as provided in the constitution. That would require a two-thirds vote of the Senate. Chairman Burrows argues that a motion to exclude is proper because the charges against Smoot are not of misconduct as a Senator, but are that he belongs to a religious organization whose teachings and practices are in conflict with the law of the land, and that his connection with that organization began before and have continued since his election to the Senate. The motion to declare his seat vacant would require on a majority vote. With the committee thus divided it a doubtful whether a definite decision can be reached at the next meeting of the committee on Friday.

President Roosevelt today received the following cablegram from James E. Sullivan, manager of the American athletes at Athens, dated yesterday: "Americans won hurdle half mile and standing jump today. Final score for Stadium events: America 11 firsts, 6 seconds, 6 thirds, total 75 points; Great Britain and all her possessions, four firsts, 6 seconds and 3 thirds, 39 points; Greece and Sweden tied for third place. A great athlete victory for America."

The President sent to the Senate today the nomination of Robert A. Ravenscroft, of Maryland, to be surveyor of customs in the district of Baltimore, Md.

It was announced at the White House today that the President on Friday will send to Congress Commissioner Garfield's report on the oil industry, together with a special message commenting on the same. It has been decided to prepare a synopsis of the report, which will be given out at the same time as the full copy, for the convenience of the press.

The elimination of middlemen or speculators in the handling of cotton was the bone of contention at today's session of the conference of cotton growers and manufacturers now meeting at the New Willard Hotel. The growers urged this, but the manufacturers, while politely receiving the propositiou, seemed to believe that such a plan is impracticable.

The State Department received today a dispatch from Ambassador Thompson, at Mexico City, stating that the information so far obtained from Progreso is so indefinite that he cannot furnish an accurate report of the circumstances surrounding the arrest of three American fishing vessels at that port by Mexican authorities.

About one o'clock this morning George Dawson, of 204 B street northwest, was shot in the left breast in front of the National Hotel. A colored man named Dallas Wallace was arrested on suspicion. Dawson was held on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad were before the Interstate Commerce Commission today to give testimony at the investigation of the coal and oil business af the country. O. S. Wight, manager of freight traffic, and Hugh L. Bond, jr., 2nd vice president, were the principal witnesses. Under the administration of President Cowan, Mr. Bond said that every effort had been made to develop the West Virginia coal fields. He said it would have affronted the administration had officials invested their money in coal mines along rival roads. Mr. Cowan himself was financial adviser and helper to whoever would invest along his road. Many were persuaded to enter the field through his energy. In reply to queries, Mr. Bond said that he owned 15 shares in the Merchants' Coal Co., of West Virginia, obtained for the underwriting of bonds in 1904, and of six bonds in the Fairmont Coal Co.

Confusion on Stock Exchange.

New York, May 2.—Confusion reigned supreme in the Stock Exchange this morning. This was especially true at the opening, when every broker had selling orders and tried to carry out the commission the same time. Great bundles of stocks were thrown over in the first few minutes of business Anaconda, Steel, Reading, Amalgamated and Union Pacific were among the most active of the stocks looking for a market. Anaconda was the subject of much comment. Todays opening price of 232 is exactly 88 points below the high price of the year, which was made on February 13. Twelve months ago the stock sold as low as 100 1-2. It looked at the start as if an attempt was on to smash the market, which apparently had no support. At the end of half an hour, however, banking support appeared, and prices rallied sharply. Then a period of feverishness set in, which lasted to noon, when another break came. Some of the issues declined lower than at the opening and the street was considerably disturbed. This afternoon another rally occurred, which sent up prices a point and more. Wall street continues to be filled with disturbing rumors affecting the standing of prominent "plungers," and it was said that one or more of these men had been required last night to furnish several hundred thousand dollars of additional margins before the opening of business today.

The first definite proposition for furnishing money on a large scale to San Francisco for the purpose of rebuilding some of the burned sections was made public yesterday, when it was announced that a syndicate of New York capitalists had agreed to advance $100,000,000.

News of the Day.

King Alfonso of Spain, and Princesses Ena and Henry of Battenberg arrived in London yesterday.

The postal union conference in session in Rome has rejected a proposal to establish a universal penny postage service.

Charles W. Sackee announced his suspension on the New York Stock Exchange, this afternoon. He was mostly a two dollar broker on the floor.

The wholesale and retail department store of the Winner-Klein Company, at Meridian, Miss., was destroyed by fire today. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Secretary Taft has notified Chairman Phelan, of the San Francisco finance committee, that the money appropriated by Congress must be disbursed by officials of the War Department

Mrs. Jane Dowie, wife of "Elijah," has joined the Salvation Army, and has been assigned to work in the Ravenswood department of the organization. She will not take up her duties until the fight over Zion City is finished

A minister of the gospel has been the first to comply with the Armstrong law relative to lobbying before the New York legislature. The Rev. A. S. Gregg last night filed a certificate with the Secretary of State acknowledging himself to be a lobbyist. Dr. Gregg has been "lobbying" for over two months in the interest of the Cassidy-Lansing anti-race track gambling bill.

In a few days President Roosevelt will send to Congress a message explaining the attitude of this government toward contributions from foreign countries for the benefit of sufferers by the earthquake and fire in San Francisco. The message will deal with the difference between contributions from foreign countries made to this government and those from the same source made directly to the people of San Francisco.

All the Virginia delegation in Congress favored the proposition to have the government continue the present method of distributing seeds among the farmers. Several of them, including Mr. Lamb, of course, as he was in charge of the time on the democratic side, as senior democratic member of the committee on agriculture; Mr. Jones, Mr. Rixey and Mr. Hay spoke in behalf of the appropriation, which was carried.

The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business April 30, 1906, the total debt, amounted to $984,413,247, an increase for the month of $2,889,809. The monthly comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures shows that for the month of April the total receipts were $45,092,867 and the expenditures $47,025,106, leaving a deficit for the month of nearly $2,000,000.

Additional confirmation of the truth of the story of Father Gapon's execution was received in St. Petersburg yesterday. It consisted of a copy of the sentence of death passed by the revolutionary workmen's tribunal, and was mailed, like Gapon's portfolio, from Berlin, to M. Margolin, the former priest's lawyer. The document gave details of Gapon's offenses, and closed with the laconic phrase: "The sentence has been executed."

United States secret service agents last night closed for the first time in forty years the Honduras lottery, a continuation of the Louisiana lottery, with headquarters in Wilmington, Del. After forty years of continued, unmolested prosperity, netting half a million dollars a month to its backers, this lottery received its death blow yesterday by the seizure of its three headquarters. These were located at New York, Gloucester, N. J., and Wilmington.

By a vote of 153 to 58, the House yesterday evening decided to continue the free distribution of garden and flower seeds. Many of the items in the agricultural bill broadening the scope of the bureau of chemistry and Dr. Wiley's department were eliminated on points of order, particularly those relating to the adulteration of food, condiments, drugs and beverages. Considerable progress was made on the bill after the free-seed proposition was out of the way, and the bill will be completed tomorrow.

Two hundred men, calling themselves socialists, attempted to march through the streets of Chicago yesterday under the red flag and were prevented by the police. When the column was passing the corner of Congress street and Ogden avenue one of the flagbearers, Edward Wladzilnski, unfurled his red flag and was at once place under arrest. Several of his companions attempted to take him from the police and the officers drew their revolvers and declared that they would fire if any attempt was made to interfere. The marchers gave way when the weapons were drawn, but threw stones after the patrol wagon that carried Wladzilnski away to the police station.

Sprung a Sensation.

Newark, N. J., May 2.—Chauncey G. Parker, one of the attorneys for Mrs. Lillian Duke, in the divorce suit brought by James B. Duke, sprung a sensation in Vice Chancellor Pitney's court this morning by asking Nellie Sands, Mrs. Duke's former maid—who gave damaging evidence against her former mistress by telling of the frequent visits of Major Huntoon, the co-respondent in the case, to Mrs. Duke during Mr. Duke's absence from home, and of the exchange of love messages between the defendant and co-respondent—if she had not been kidnapped when she left Mrs. Duke's residence and took employment with Duke's brother, Benjamin Duke, where she has since been employed. After springing the kidnapping sensation Mr. Parker brought out the interesting fact that the maid had been the recipient of ten shares of American Tobacco stock by Mr. Duke from which she derives an income of $15 every quarter. She also testified that Mr. Duke gave her a valuable diamond.

Olympic Games.

Athens, May 2.—The jury on awards at the Olympic games issued their final prize list today. It shows that America captured 24 prizes, including 12 first prizes. This is the largest number of first prizes won by any of the teams competing. France won 21 prizes, including 10 first prizes. England got 16 prizes, four of which were first prizes, and Greece captured 30 prizes, only nine of which being first prizes. Sweden got 12 prizes, Italy, 10, Austria, 7, Hungary, 7, Denmark, 6, Switzerland, 5, Finland, 4, Canada, 3, Australia, 3, Belgium, 2, Norway, 2, and Bohemia, 1.

MAY DAY IN FRANCE

As was stated in the Gazette, the long-dreaded May day in Paris failed to bring the revolution which inflammatory journals predicted, but, none the less, it brought scenes of extreme violence. The labor districts, which thousands of troops controlled with difficulty, and even central portions of Paris have taken on the appearance of a siege, with regiments of infantry and cavalry camped about the Arc de Triomphe, the Bourse, the Bank of France and the great railway station, while military sentinels paced before banks and private establishments. The main thoroughfares in the residential portion of Paris remain tranquil. In the West End, far removed from riotous scenes, people were disposed to treat the events in the labor quarters as harmless effervescence.

It was, however, much more than that. Throughout the afternoon dragoons, republican guards and cuirassiers charged disorderly masses, sweeping the Place de la Republique and the broad Boulevard de Magenta. Toward nightfall cavalry charged with drawn swords, and many persons were wounded on both sides.

The manifestants overturned omnibuses and threw up hasty barricades Over 1,000 arrests were made during the day.

The forces for the protection of the city numbered 50,000 troops, 12,000 police and 8,000 republican guards, gendarmes and detectives.

The total number of strikers was estimated at 80,000.

At no time did the demonstration reach the magnitude of a revolt, but was rather a leaderless tumult, in which the serious labor element, struggling for a principle, was hopelessly confused with violent agitators, anarchists, revolutionists, roughs and a large number of the curious. The workmen never succeeded in forming a procession or in assembling more than scattered bands.

Their chief action was a reunion of several thousands in the labor exchange, at which a resolution was adopted not to return to work until the eight-hour day shall have been accorded.

The worst hour of the day were towards 5 o'clock yesterday evening, when the police practically lost control and were compelled to rely on the mounted troops. The latter, forming in lines 20 yards across and 15 yards apart, swept around the Place de la Republique, driving the disorderly crowds into the surrounding streets. Most of the mob sought refuge in the Boulevard de Magenta and at the Quai de Valmy, which became centers of disorder.

Here trumpets sounded repeated commands to disperse and the cavalry galloped into the crowds, trampling and injuring many. A body of footguards became surrounded by manifestants and was rescued with difficulty by cavalry with drawn swords. Here a considerable number were wounded. By 6 o'clock calm had been measurably restored, and most of the troops returned to their barracks.

The temper of the workmen last night was threatening. They claim that the police acted brutally and cite many incidents of innocent people being beaten and arrested. They declare that yesterday was only the beginning of the movement.

Reports from the provinces show that there were violent demonstrations at Marseilles, Brest, Bordeaux, St. Etienne, Lyons and Rouen. At Marseilles processions carrying red flags and creating violent disorder came in collision with the troops, and a number of persons were injured. At Bordeaux processions paraded the streets singing revolutionary songs, and the cavalry charged them, wounding many. At Lyons a crowd of manifestants attacked the streets cars, breaking the glass windows, whereupon the dragoons charged the rioters, wounding a large number. There were lesser disturbances at many points.

At Toulon 14,000 strikers marched in procession carrying red flags, but there was no violence.

V M. I Investigation.

The committee appointed by the recent legislature to investigate the conditions that led to the expulsion of certain cadets from the Virginia Military Institute last November held its first session at the institute yesterday afternoon. Major John Mallory, of the United States army, and General Shipp, the superintendent, were before the committee.

Major Mallory, who is making an inspection of the institute, made a report highly favorable of the physical condition and efficiency of the cadets and of the service and fare at the mess hall. General Shipp detailed the story of the trouble last November, when the third class complained of the fare and threatened to withdraw unless conditions improved.

After a thorough investigation by the board of visitors the management was exonerated, and later nine of the "oath-bound" 13 cadets were dismissed.

The committee will continue from day to day until a thorough investigation is made. Members of the board of visitors of the institute are also in session in Lexington, and Alexander Hamilton and W. T. Shields have been selected to represent the board before the committee.

Fields Must go to Prison.

Thomas M. Fields, a Washington lawyer, convicted in the District Supreme Court of embezzlement, must serve the term of five years in the penitentiary which was imposed on him by the trial court, according to a decision handed down yesterday by the District Court of Appeals, in which the judgment of the lower tribunal is affirmed. Fields was indicted jointly with Attorney Andrew A. Lipscomb on a charge of embezzlement in connection with the funds, amounting to about $15,000, of the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, of which they were the receivers. When the case against the defendants came up for a hearing, a severance was asked and granted. The result of the trial of Fields was a conviction, while Lipscomb was acquitted.

Virginia News.

Mayor Reed, of Portsmouth, has issued rigid instructions to the police department that hereafter no cigars, tobacco or soda water may be sold on Sunday.

F. S. Gannon has assumed charge as president of the Norfolk and Southern Railway Company, under which title a number of railroads in that section and eastern North Carolina were recently merged.

During a severe storm at Branchville Sunday hailstones fell, killing poultry, small animals and two horses. House tops were damaged and the Seaboard Air Line Railway's sheetiron warehouse roof was ruined.

Rev. W. H. Burkhardt, who has been rector of Grace church, Haddonfield, N. J. has accepted the pastorate of St. James' Episcopal Church, Leesburg. He succeeds Dr. J. W. Morris now of Norfolk and will enter upon his duties during the summer.

Gabriel Battle, colored, charged with having committed a criminal assault upon Miss Lena Rogers, of King George, is now confined in the jail at Fredericksburg. The grand jury of King George will meet tomorrow, when it is expected that Battle will be indicted, and the trial will begin Friday next.

As a result of a premonition of trouble at home, Robert L. Atchison, who is employed by the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, left there Sunday night for his residence in Baltimore and on his arrival there yesterday morning was informed that his wife had died only a few hours before he landed.

As a result of the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States, the divorce which Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw obtained several years ago from her husband, Mr. Robert G. Shaw, second, of Boston, has been subjected to the closest legal scrutiny. At the initiative of Mrs. Shaw, her forthcoming marriage to Waldorf Astor was postponed in order that even the slightest doubt of the validity of the divorce might be removed from the marriage, and now it is announced the wedding will take place in London on May 19th.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to residents of this State of the following patents: William E. N. Bailey, of Sherando, machine for placing and removing nuts upon rail-securing bolts; Robert L. Bond, of Orange, reversible hame; Daniel A. Carber, of Roanoke, poultry carrier; Frank A. Haptonstall, of Covington, rail-joint; Patrick McGranighan, of Granite, submarine filter; Longan C. Phillips, of Richmond, lifting mechanism, and Walter N. Wayman, of Staunton, gas-administering apparatus.

Senator Daniel's Speech.

Senator Daniel made an able speech in the Senate yesterday evening on the railroad rate bill.

Senator Daniel supported the right of Congress to legislate so as to fix rates and to delegate its power to a commission. He opposed Mr. Bailey's nonsuspension provision and indicated indifference as to whether a court-review clause should be inserted. He did not conclude, and will continue his speech today.

He began with a presentation of his views on the magnitude of the question before the Senate, pronouncing it the greatest economic problem of the age because of the vast extent of the railroad business.

Taking up the bill, Mr. Daniel outlined a number of questions involved, including the power of Congress to regulate railroad charges, to fix rates from any station in one State to any station in another State, and discussed the question whether Congress has the right to enforce compliance with the rates that may be fixed by the commission. He declared these questions to be fundamental and that there were sufficient Supreme Court decisions to answer in every instance that Congress has the power.

After reciting much history to sustain his position concerning the right of Congress to regulate commerce between the states, Mr. Daniel said that it was in the power of Congress to charter a railroad in the United States, as the nation possesses eminent domain.

Calling attention to the fact that the charter of the Union Pacific Railroad Company has been granted for "defense" Mr. Daniel said that Congress was proceeding in the matter of railroad legislation not alone under the commerce clause of the constitution, but under all the powers it enjoys. He took issue with Mr. Foraker on the point whether the United States had the same right as the individual states to fix railroad rates.

Mr. Daniel then took up the question of the power of Congress to transfer its duties to a commission, taking issue with Mr. Knox on the point of court review.

Mr. Daniel spoke at length of the privileges of invoking the due process of law, saying that the principle had been in vogue among Anglo-Saxon peoples for more than 700 years. "Every individual, whether human or corporate," he said, "is entitled under that principle to have his, her or its property protected in accordance with the law of the land made in accordance with constitutional authority."

The Sherman Display.

The President last night directed the curtailment of the movement of the Twelfth Cavalry as escort to the Rev. Father Thomas Sherman, son of Gen. Sherman, on a trip over part of the line of General Sherman's march to the sea. Instead the trip may be made from Fort Oglethorpe as far as Resaca, which is within about fifty miles of Fort Oglethrope, when the cavalry detachment is to return to the latter place. Orders to this effect were given last night following the receipt of a long dispatch from Brigadier-General Duvall, commanding the department of the gulf, by whose authority the detachment was ordered to accompany Father Sherman and a conference on the subject between President Roosevelt and General Bell, chief of staff of the army.

Today's Telegraphic News

Conditions in France.

Marseilles, France, May 2.—Rioting occurred here today in connection with the labor troubles. Striking printers attempted a demonstration and the police charged the rioters. Four of the printers were seriously wounded and several others were injured.

Following the disorders which occurred yesterday when, after the morning hours, there were almost continuous conflicts between workingmen and the police and soldiers, Paris was absolutely quiet this morning. Only the crowded meetings of workingmen at the Labor Exchange attested to continuance, in a tranquil form, however, of the movement for an eight-hour day, which caused blood to be shed yesterday, and in the opinion of many persons threatened to precipitate a revolution.

While today has been free from the stormy demonstrations of yesterday, it really marks as much more important data in the annals of the French labor movement than May Day itself, since only today does the revolution of the labor unions, to establish an eight hour working day, become effective.

Many of the trades unions, including the painters, masons, house-builders, carpenters, lithographers, printers, jewelers, bakers, as well as certain groups of state employes such as the tobacco hands, match-makers, and arsenal workmen, have pledged themselves either to strike in support of the eight hour demand, or to quit work today after they have worked eight hours.

The employers have answered the declaration of the workingmen to carry out this programme by announcing that any workmen who leave their positions under such circumstances will be considered discharged.

In view of the stand taken by the opposing forces, the developments of the situation depend almost entirely upon the mood which the workingmen may assume today. Even the leaders of the laborers, with many of whom the correspondent of the Publishers Press talked today both at the Labor Exchange and the headquarters of the labor confederation, say they are unable to foresee what will happen. The opinion of the public generally, however, is that the movement is abortive, but only the hours which are to come can tell what the conclusion of it all will be.

One thing seems certain, and that is that the next twenty-four hours will either witness a labor reform which will entirely change French customs, and set a new example for the rest of the world, or the failure of the movement, and the propositions which have been made to enforce the eight hour demand will prevent any similar attempt in the near future by proving the helplessness of labor against capital.

Brest, France, May 2.—A large number of the workmen who were on strike resumed work today. Several collisions between the troops and the strikers occurred early this morning. A number of soldiers were wounded by being struck by stones. Eight of the rioters were arrested.

Bordeaux, France, May 2.—Fresh riots occurred here late last evening. A number of strikers attacked the troops with knives, and the soldiers charged with drawn sabres. Several were wounded on each side.

Affairs in the Mining Region.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 2.—While strike talk in the towns and hamlets of the region is hot because of the shooting and bloodshed at Mount Carmel, John Mitchell and the union leaders propose preventing any precipitate action on the part of the delegates to the tri-district convention in bringing on a strike on account of the Mount Carmel affair. The delegates, while variously instructed by their locals, will be asked by President Mitchell to give the issues their fullest consideration and best judgment. No strike will be voted unless the delegates feel that their best interests would be served by such action. From present indications the convention will be in session three days and the final vote to strike or not to strike will not be taken until Saturday.

The railroad companies have resumed their preparations to resume work, believing that the miners' convention will call a strike. Non-union men and strike breakers are being moved quietly into the region and distributed among the collieries. An official of the Lehigh Valley said this morning that scores of old employees in the company's mines in the middle districts had applied for work when operations were resumed. The Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company is making the first move in this section to resume work. This is a Reading company. The Lackawanna and the Delaware & Hudson companies hope to have a majority of their collieries in complete operation within a week.

Shamokin, Pa., May 2.—The Susquehanna Coal Company started putting in a private telephone at all their collieries today, so as to be prepared for the expected strike.

Shamokin, Pa., May 2.—Five carloads of strike breakers from the Clearfield district arrived in this region today. The men will go to work after next Thursday in case a strike is declared by the Scranton convention.

Mount Carmel, Pa., May 2.—There are no signs of more trouble in this place today between the State constabulary and mine workers. Leaders of the latter have convinced the men that fighting can do no good towards increasing their wages at the mines and that they should not be drawn into conflicts with the constabulary.

Wholesale Evictions.

New York, May 2.—More than one thousand families on the East Side are threatened with eviction, some because they are unable to pay their rent, others because they will not pay a 25 per cent increase demanded by landlords and many others because their dwelling places will have to be turned over to the carpenter and plumber to meet the demands of the tenement house department. The wholesale dispossession is causing great hardship, and the misery of it all is revealed in the civil courts where sobbing and scolding women besiege the justices for a little relief.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 2, 11 a. m.—The downward movement in the stock market continued without check or opposition practically all through the first hour, the only support appears to be coming from the covering of shorts. Commission houses were sellers on a large scale all around the room, and as a result prices reached a lower level for many issues than at any previous time this year. The greatest losses were sustained in the high-priced issues. It is the general belief that some large speculators have taken an aggressive position on the bear side.

British Naval Scandal.

London, May 2.—A grave naval scandal has developed over the mysterious disappearance of the plans of the new battleship Dreadnought, which was launched only a short time ago. It is believed that the plans have been sold to a foreign power by a Navy Department official. The government has been trying to keep the matter quiet, but the fact has now transpired that the plans disappeared about a month ago and were returned to the Admiralty through the mail. The power which secured the plans is not known, but suspicion is directed toward America, owing to the fact that the United States intends immediately to construct a battleship of improved Dreadnought designs. This is the most serious betrayal of British naval plans that has occurred in many years, and is a hard blow to the Admiralty because of the many new construction methods in the Dreadnought which England tried its hardest to keep secret in the hope that it would put Great Britain several years ahead of the other powers in the new style of warships.

Washington, May 2.—All naval authorities in Washington scoff at the suggestion that the plans of the Dreadnought were surreptitously obtained by this government, and deny that the plans of the 18,000-ton British battleship have in any manner been inspected by American naval architects. It is true that the construction officers of the American navy understand in a general way the design of the Dreadnought. This understanding, however, extends only to the general battery plan, and the details of interior design, disposition of structural strains, boiler and engine arrangement, armor and bunker scheme are only guessed at in the Navy Department here.

Statement from Operators.

New York, May 2.—Anthracite coal operators, through their publicity bureau today issued rather a remarkable statement to combat the claims of the miners that they are underpaid. The statement, which points to the number of saloons in the anthracite region as a reason for the operators' contention, follows: "In reference to the claim of Mr. John Mitchell and his associates that the workers in the anthracite region are underpaid, attention has been directed to the old-fashioned truth that a people's prosperity is measured by the amount expended for luxuries. On this basis, not much can be said for the miners' contention.

"In Pennsylvania, there is a high license law and the cost of running a liquor saloon is very considerable. Nevertheless, in the town of Shenandoah there are 183 licensed saloons, or one saloon to every 16 voters; and in Mahanoy City there are 103 licensed saloons, or one to every 15 voters. In some places, like New Philadelphia, there are as many as one saloon to every six voters. A recent report of the law and order society of Schuylkill county in the heart of the anthracite region contained this utterance: Our county stands first among the sixty seven counties of the State in the number of saloons to the population. In the last five years a license has been granted to every 173 persons in the county. This 173 includes men, women and children; de luct the women and children and there is a liquor license issued in this county for every fifty adult male persons. It can hardly be maintained that a community which can support the liquor traffic on the extraordinary scale is underpaid."

Another Tunnel Accident.

Jersey City, N. J., May 2—At 9 o'clock this morning all the ambulances in the city were summoned to the Fifteenth street shaft of the tunnel under the North river to Morton street, New York. It was reported that all the men in the tunnel on the Jersey City side had been killed by tunnel gas. Fourteen men were taken out later. They were all unconscious, and were removed to St. Francis Hospital. It is said that all of the fourteen men will recover. The buildings at the tunnel shaft are ablaze. Escaping gas is said to have been responsible for the accident.

So potent was the gas that it affected nearly everybody within 200 feet of the shaft. Physicians, policemen and spectators alike suffered in a slight degree. During the excitement a small frame building burst into flames and was destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Raids on Lottery Promoters.

New York, May 2.—The simultaneous raids in New York, Wilmington, Del., and Gloucester, N. J., on the headquarters of the Honduras lottery, the continuation of the Louisiana lottery, yesterday implicates many prominent business men and has struck a hard blow at the lottery concern, which may eventually put it out of business. Hundreds of arrests are to follow the raids. It is reported that a warrant has been issued among others for the arrest of John M. Rogers, president of the John M. Rogers Press Company, of Wilmington, where two tons of lottery tickets were found. The raids were made by Secret Service Operator Donoghue and several of his men.

Resignation of Count Witte.

St. Petersburg, May 2.—The semi-official announcement was made today that Count Witte has resigned the position of Premier, and that M. Gooremykin will be named as his successor. M. Gooremykin was formerly Minister of the Interior.

Tornado and Cloudburst.

Dallas, Tex., May 2.—A telephone message from McKinney, Texas, says a tornado and cloudburst yesterday caused a great loss in the northern part of Collin county. Meagre advices tell of the destruction of the Chitworth, Calhoun and George farm houses. Five children, all injured, are imprisoned in the ruins of the Chitworth home and physicians cannot reach them because of the great flood of water surrounding the place. The whole country is deluged.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give you One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 2, 1906.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:59 a. m. and sets at 6 54 p. m. High water at 2:24 a. m. and 2:50 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section showers and thunder storms tonight. Thursday fair, cooler; fresh westerly winds.

Investigating the Police.

There was another meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners last night, when the investigation of the official conduct of members of the police force was continued. Chief Webster and Officers Jones, Bell and Henderson, who had been summoned before the board, were examined. The interrogations propounded to the chief referred to the manner in which the business of the station house is conducted and the general working of the force as well as to the feeling existing between the respective officers. During the examination the chief stated that he is 79 years of age and that he has been head of the Alexandria police force since its organization in 1870. Officers Jones, Bell and Henderson were subsequently summoned when certain questions were asked them. There will be another meeting tonight at which time other officers will be interrogated by the board. As was stated yesterday, the investigation is drawing to a close, the evidence sought by the commissioners having been obtained, and in a short time their findings will be made public.

At the meeting last night Chief Webster submitted to the commissioners the resignation of Officer William H. Mayhugh, which was accepted.

Death of H. C. Field.

Mr. Henry C. Field, an old, well-known and esteemed resident, died at his home on Lee street, near Prince, about 12 o'clock last night. The deceased was paralyzed early yesterday morning. Mr. Field was a son of the late Stephen J. Field, and was born April 11, 1831. He was consequently 75 years old. He entered the boot and shoe business in early life, and for some time was associated with the late R. Y. Cross, who in by-gone years conducted business on the south side of King street, between Fairfax and Royal. Shortly before the civil war Mr. Field became a member of the firm which was formed at that time, and the house of Cross, Lugenbeel & Field was one of Alexandria's institutions. After the death of the senior members of the firm Mr. Field conducted the business. For many years the deceased had been an attache of the First National Bank. He had almost from its organization been a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons. Mr. Field leaves a widow and four children —two sons and two daughters.

The Steamer Callahan.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company's new ferry steamer Callahan, which is to run between Washington and Alexandria, and with which the company intends to maintain a ferry between Sewell's Point and Old Point during the Jamestown Exposition, will arrive in Norfolk about May 16th, and proceed thence to Washington. The Callahan is getting her finishing touches at the yards of the builders, the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, at Wilmington, Del. She is a double end, steel propellor boat, and is built for sixteen knots speed, so as to make the run between the two ferry points on the Potomac in about 20 minutes, the distance between the two cities being about 5½ miles. The vessel is about 180 feet long, and will carry about thirty teams.—[Norfolk Landmark.

Verdict for Mr. Clements.

Contrary to expectations, the case of James E. Clements vs. Frank Lyon, a suit for $30,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received in an encounter in the office of the defendant last year, came to an end in the Circuit Court for the County last night, the jury rendering a verdict in favor of Mr. Clements for $200. A motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment was overruled by Judge Nicol. Mr. Clements was represented by Judge J. K. M. Norton, of this city, and the attorneys for Mr. Lyon were Messrs. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax county, and Crandall Mackey, of Alexandria county. The jury, of which Resin W. Darby was foreman, was out one hour. A history of the case was published in yesterday's Gazette.

Kindergarten.

The monthly meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held yesterday. The kindergarten has been obliged to remove from the quarters which it has occupied for three years to rooms in the vacant house next door. A permanent house will be procured during the coming year. On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall will be held the annual meeting of the association, to which all who are interested are cordially invited to attend. There will be speakers from Washington and vocal and instrumental music. The following subscriptions of $1 each have been lately contributed: Mr. Ahern, Mr. Bell, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. M. A. Wood, Mrs. G. R. Hill, Miss Hill, a friend and Mrs. E. R. Stabler.

Examination of Teachers.

The uniform examination of public school teachers, as will be seen by a notice elsewhere, will be held before Supt. K. Kemper at Peabody building, this city, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. on each day. Teachers must provide themselves with all writing material.

Liquor Licenses.

In the Corporation Court today one application for a liquor license—that of Joseph Weideman—was refused and one was granted. This makes sixty licenses granted so far and four refused. Several saloonkeepers who have been conducting business for some time did not make application for licenses this year.

Police Court.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. One case was on the docket—that of Peter Hall, jr., who had been cited to appear by Officer Beach to answer the charge of selling intoxicating bitters to a minor. The case was continued.

Personal.

Mr. Charles Irvin has been appointed chief clerk at the office of the Southern Railway Company in this city, in place of Mr. G. S. Hinkins who has recently been appointed agent, and Mr. T. M. Jones who for some months has been chief clerk has been transferred to the general office in Washington. Mr. Lewis Kemper has been reinstated as cashier for the company in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Royster, of Richmond, were the guest of Lieut. James Smith, on north Fairfax street today.

Mrs. P. W. von D Westelaken yesterday very delightfully entertained the members of the Washington Bowling Club, of which she is a member, at her home on north Washington street. The evening was spent in games, music, &c., and at intervals refreshments were served.

Drawing to a Close.

The fishing season of 1906 is apparently drawing to a close, and it will not be long before the curtain will again fall upon Fishtown. There were about 30,000 herring at the wharf this morning, while orders had been received for 60,000. This scant supply had been sent down from Washington. They brought $2.50 per thousand and were quoted firm at that price. Shad continue very scarce. The demand, on account of the high prices, is not brisk and prices are consequently weaker. The services of the tugboat which has recently been employed in towing vessels to Fishtown have been dispensed with, which is an indication of an early closing of operations.

The Braddock House.

Mr. F. L. Wagar, of Washington, who, as heretofore stated in the Gazette, has recently purchased the Braddock House property, was in this city yesterday and made a thorough inspection of that building. He is being urged to improve the property and reopen it as a hotel and is considering the matter seriously. He will remodel the property at any rate and should he reconvert it into a hotel, will fit it in fine style with all modern improvements. Mr. Wagar has been shown the need of a modern hotel in Alexandria and, it is said, is convinced that he could make such a hotel pay.

Accosted by a Negro.

Miss Ruth Travers, while on Columbus street, near Oronoco, in company with two other young ladies, between 10 and 11 o'clock last night, was accosted by a negro, who seized her by one of her arms. The darkey supposed she had a pocketbook in her hand. Miss Travers screamed and told her assailant she knew him and would have him arrested, when he released her and fled. This is the second instance where young women have been seized by negroes on the street this week, one having been accosted on south Royal street Monday night.

Memorial Services.

We have received an invitation from Alexandria Aerie, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, to attend their second memorial service to be held at the lodge room in the Alexandria National Bank building, on Sunday evening, May 6, at 4 o'clock.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Creel vs. Smith; judgment for plaintiff for $110.

Trieble vs. Calvert; judgment for defendant.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Henry W. Bland and Mollie Parker, both of Fairfax county.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret A. Kirk, of this city, who, as stated in the Gazette of that day, died in Baltimore yesterday, will be brought to this city tomorrow evening and taken to the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Hammond, No. 226 north Fairfax street. The funeral will take place on Friday evening at 2 o'clock from the M. P. Church.

Mr. George L. Daniel, an old and well-known resident of the Lincoln, Fairfax county, neighborhood, died yesterday. The deceased was in his 85th year.

The Koffee Klatch given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran Church will be continued tonight at 207 north Alfred street.

The weather today has been mild with showers this morning.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of an entertainment at Schuler's Hall tonight.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 2.

SENATE

The Senate today passed without objection a resolution of thanks of General Horace Porter, late ambassador to France, for his recovery, at his own expense, of the remains of John Paul Jones. The resolution, when it came up yesterday, was referred to the committee on foreign relations, which today recommended favorable action.

Mr. Perkins presented to the Senate today a telegram from Governor George C. Pardee, addressed to the California delegation in Congress, asking the Congress whether it would not "in California's great present need," pass the following claims. "The Justice of which has never been seriously questioned."

Five per cent public lands claims, aggregating $1,000,000; Civil War claims, of over $4,000,000; Indian war claims, of $660,000.

The petition was referred to the committee on claims.

Senator Newlands introduced a resolution in the Senate today providing that the ways and means committee of the House and the finance committee of the Senate jointly considered various plans for extending financial aid in the restoration of San Francisco. It asks that the joint committee report the advisability or practicability of the national government furnishing such aid either by guaranteeing loans at a low rate of interest, or by the promotion of the organization of a great financial corporation state or national. It provides for the appointment by the President of a national commission of men experienced in exposition building.

Mr. Newland explained that although he had been engaged in interesting New York financiers in the project of rebuilding the stricken city, no final conclusion had been reached. He thought that the guaranteeing of $100,000,000 bonds by the government would accomplish the purpose.

Mr. Hopkins inquired what the distinction was between aiding private interests in San Francisco, and loaning money to farmers whose crops had failed.

Mr. Newlands contended that a government spent two hundred million dollars to free Cuba almost twice that sum to civilize the Philipinos should be capable to exteading temporary aid to rebuilding the necessary gateway to the Pacific.

The Senate this afternoon agreed to a resolution directing the Interstate Commerce Commission to send to the Senate all findings of fact and its conclusions thereon, relative to its investigation of the oil and coal carrying railroads.

HOUSE.

When the House met today consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill was resumed.

Married His Other Sweetheart.

New Brunswick, N. J., May 2.—Elsie Hansen, the good-looking 17-year-old daughter of Marcus Hansen, of Perth Amboy, was the plaintiff in a suit for $10,000 for breach of promise of marriage against Joseph Devita, a rich Italian contractor, of Port Reading, trial of which was commenced before Justice Heisley in the Circuit Court yesterday. Miss Hansen wept while the lawyers argued. Miss Hansen testified that she met Devita early in 1903; that he paid devoted court to her, showed her the house in Port Reading they would occupy when they were married, and gave her an engagement ring. He paid her way to Copenhagen in February, 1904, declaring he would stop there for her on his way to Italy, and they would be married. Instead of that, he went on to Italy and there married an old sweetheart. The case was continued until Thursday.

Stover Carper, 19 years old, of Frederick county, yesterday filed a bill in chancery against his wife, Mrs. Ella Carper, asking that his marriage on March 5 last be annulled and declared void. Carper bases his complaint on the ground of duress.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickles, of Miletus W Va., "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists.

PURE ENGLISH MOHAIR.

This extraordinary bargain is the fruit of a large purchase at auction last week. As usual, we were the ones that bought most liberally, hence we secured the greatest bargains. Every yard of mohair is first quality, and is reversible and dust proof. Some are plain, some have the new shadow check effect; others have shadows check over shot, with a neat jacquard figure and glace effects. Colors are white, cream, tan, gray, red, navy, marine, brown, green, etc. Now here's a chance to save at least half on your skirt or entire dress. Mohair makes an ideal mountain, seashore, or traveling dress. Choice of this lot, worth up to $1.50, at yard.

Hicks for May.

A reactionary storm period falls from the 2nd to the 5th. A very warm wave for the season, sustained until after storms of rain, wind and thunder about the 4th to 5th, will pass from west to east at this time.

A regular storm period central on the 9th, covers the 7th to 12th. By the 8th low barometer and much warmer will be advancing from the west, attended by very decided storms. From 9th to 12th a series of storms will sweep most parts of the country, progressing from west to east. Tornadoes are probable at this period. Rapid change to high barometers, westerly gales and much cooler weather will follow this series of storms, and frosts will visit many northern and central sections from the 10th to 14th.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 14th, 15th and 16th. The Mars and Mercury disturbances blending with this annual tendency make it entirely possible and probable that violent to dangerous storms may appear about the 14th, 15th and 16th.

A regular storm period runs from the 19th to the 23rd. This promises to be the most active to violent period in May. Low barometer, very warm, humid atmosphere and electrical storms of marked severity will prevail to the first and continue to the end of this period. All through the central part of May there is great tendency at the storm periods to daily cycles of storms, for a number of days in succession, breaking up as a rule with a general and very violent storm. The culmination of this period will fall within 36 hours of midnight the 22d. The outlook for this whole period is threatening, but we will name Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the 21st, 22d and 23rd, as danger days.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 26th. A decided change to cooler will spread over the country generally at the wind up of these storms.

The last day in May is the beginning of a regular storm period which will express itself during the opening days of June. The outlook for June is exceptionally threatening. Extreme and phenomenal results may be expected, and the conditions in May will indicate the general character of phenomena to look for. A general maximum of electrical storms with many seismic and volcanic disturbances are among the pre-eminent probabilities.

A Terrible Ordeal.

A dispatch from Milwaukee says: Imprisoned in a compartment of the partially constructed tunnel under the river, through a break in which water was pouring, John Slater stood for two hours Monday watching the water rise slowly, until it threatened to ingulf him. When at last he was rescued he was a maniac, his mind having given way from fright. Peering throughout a bull's-eye in the compartment his companions saw him in his plight, and for a long time were unable to help him. Hose from the fire boats was led down into the tunnel, and the engines were worked at a furious pace to pump out the water while the rescue work went on. In spite of everything that could be done, the water rose steadily above Slater's waist, to his breast, to his armpits, and finally to his neck. Fifteen minutes later he would have been drowned. Barely in time to prevent this, however, the firemen succeeded in opening the door and took Slater, insane and benumbed with cold, to a hospital.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F Creighton & Co.

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is an unfailing cure for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflammation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obstinate old cases have been cured in a few weeks. COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Va., rendered on the 12th day of March, 1906, in the chancery cause therein depending under the style of Mary C. S. Burch vs. Ella Rose Smoot and others, the undesigned, the Special Commissioners therein named, will offer for sale at public auction on the 19th day of May, 1906,

at 10 o'clock a. m., at the front door of the Royal street entrance to the Market building, in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, the following described several parcels of real estate, situate in the said city of Alexandria, Va., to-wit:

1. Beginning on the east side of Lee street at the northwest corner of the brick dwelling house now known and designated as No. 119 north Lee street forty-four (44) feet, more or less, south of the intersection of Lee and Cameron streets; thence south on Lee street twenty-one (21) feet nine (9) inches; thence east parallel to King street one hundred (100) feet; thence north parallel to Lee street twenty-one (21) feet nine (9) inches, and thence west parallel to King street one hundred (100) feet to the place of beginning. This lot is improved by a substantial two-story brick dwelling house.

2. Beginning on the east side of Lee street at the southwest corner of the brick dwelling known as 119 north Lee street and sixty five (65) feet nine (9) inches more or less south of the intersection of Lee and Cameron streets; thence south on Lee street one hundred and ten (110) feet eleven and one-half (11½) inches, more or less, to the line formerly C. F. Whiting's line; thence east parallel to King street to Union street; thence north on Union street one hundred and thirty-two (132) feet eight and one-half (8½) inches; thence west parallel to King street two hundred (200) feet; thence south parallel to Lee street twenty-one (21) feet nine (9) inches, and thence west parallel to King street one hundred (100) feet to the place of beginning. And together with the sash, door and blind factory and planing mill thereon, and engine, boiler, machinery, machines, belting, implements and tools therein and thereon, used in connection with operating the said sash, door and blind factory and planing mill, except such thereof as is the property of Henry K. Field & Co.

This lot together with lots Nos. 3, 4, 5 and 6 has been used and employed as a lumber yard for many years formerly by Josiah H. D. Smoot, the then owner thereof; afterwards by Mrs. Frances P. Smoot, and now in the occupancy of Henry K. Field & Company, who are conducting a business of that character there.

3. Beginning on Union street forty-four (44) feet to the south of Cameron street on the east side of Union street; thence south on Union street eighty-eight (88) feet seven (7) inches, more or less; thence parallel with King street into the Potomac river; thence north parallel with Union street eighty-eight (88) feet seven (7) inches, more or less; thence west parallel with Cameron street to the beginning. Together with all water rights and privileges, and all other rights, privileges, appurtenances and easements to said lot of ground belonging or in anywise appertaining.

This lot has on it an office and counting room and has in connection with lots Nos. 2, 4, 5 and 6 been used for the conduct of a lumber business for many years.

4. Beginning on the west side of Union street at a point twenty-two (22) feet north of Fayette Alley and running thence north on Union street forty-three (43) feet seven (7) inches, more or less, to what was Carlyle's line; thence west parallel to Fayette Alley sixty (60) feet; thence south and parallel to Union street forty-three (43) feet seven (7) inches, more or less, and thence easterly sixty (60) feet to the beginning.

This lot in conjunction with Nos. 2, 3, 5 and 6 has been used as a part of the lumber yard hereinbefore referred to.

5. Beginning at the distance of sixty (60) feet from the intersection of Fayette Alley and Union street, running westwardly on the said alley forty eight (48) feet; thence northwardly and parallel with Union street sixty-five (65) feet, seven (7) inches, more or less, to the line formerly Carlyle F. Whiting's; thence easwardly parallel with the said alley forty-eight (48) feet; thence southwardly parallel to Union street sixty-five (65) feet seven (7) inches, more or less, from the line of said Carlyle F. Whiting to the beginning.

This lot is improved by a brick stable and warehouse and in connection with lots Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 6, has been used and employed as a lumber yard as hereinbefore stated.

6. Beginning on the north side of Fayette Alley thirty (30) feet wide at the distance of one hundred and eight (108) feet westerly of Union street, and at the west line of lot No. 4, and running westerly with said alley twelve (12) feet, more or less, to the line formerly Cazenove's: thence northerly parallel to Union street sixty-five (65) feet seven (7) inches, more or less, to the line of Whiting; thence easterly, parallel to King street, the length of the first line; thence southerly with a straight line to the beginning.

This lot together with Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5 has been used as a lumber yard, as hereinbefore stated, for many years.

7. A lot of ground on the south side of Duke street, between Pitt and St. Asaph streets, described as follows: Beginning at a point on the south side of Duke street sixty (60) feet west of Pitt street, and running thence east on Duke street thirty (30) feet; thence south parallel to Pitt street ninety-five (95) feet to an alley; thence west with said alley thirty (30) feet, and thence north with a straight line ninety-five (95) feet to the beginning. Being the same property which was conveyed to George H. Smoot by Albert Stuart and George William Brent, Commissioners, by deed dated December 1, 1868, recorded amongst the land records of Alexandria county, Virginia, in Liber Z, No. 3, folio 64.

This lot is improved by a brick dwelling house containing twelve rooms and now known and designated as 502 Duke street.

8. Beginning on the north side of Prince street one hundred and three (103) feet to the eastward of Washington street and running northerly parallel to Washington street one hundred (100) feet to an alley ten (10) feet wide; thence westerly parallel to Prince street and with the line of said alley thirty-five (35) feet; thence southerly parallel to Washington street to Prince street; thence easterly with Prince street to the beginning, with the right of way over the said alley and all other rights and appurtenances to the said lot of ground belonging. Being the same property which was conveyed to George H. Smoot by C. C. Berry and wife, by deed dated May 23, 1859, recorded amongst the land records of Alexandria county, Va., in Liber T, No. 3, folio 607.

This lot is improved by a large brick dwelling containing eighteen rooms, with gas, water and sewer connections and equipped with heaters and range. Situate in one of the most desirable localities in the city, it possesses many attractions as a home. For many years it was occupied by the late Josiah H. D. Smoot as his mansion and after his death it was continued in such use by his widow and family.

9. HOUSE AND LOT, now known and designated as No. 205 Wilkes street, situate on the north side of Wilkes street, between Fairfax and Lee streets. Lot thirteen (13) feet, more or less, in width by fifty (50) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by frame dwelling house.

10. HOUSE AND LOT, now known and designated as No. 207 Wilkes street, situate on the north side of Wilkes street, between Fairfax and Lee streets. Lot thirteen (13) feet, more or less, in width by fifty (50) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by frame dwelling house.

11. LOT OF GROUND with brick warehouse thereon, now known and designated as No. 109 north Union street, situate on the east side of Union street, between King and Cameron streets, twenty-two (22) feet one and three-quarter (1¾) inches in front on Union street, and extending eastwardly that width into the Potomac river, together with all appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

12. LOT OF GROUND with brick warehouse thereon, now known and designated as No. 111 north Union street, situate on the east side of Union street, between King and Cameron streets, twenty-two (22) feet one and three-quarter (1¾) inches in front on Union street, and extending eastwardly that width into the Potomac river, together with all appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

13 HOUSE AND LOT at northwest intersection of Cameron and Lee streets, now known and designated as No. 201 Cameron street. Lot thirteen (13) feet, more or less, in width by sixty-one (61) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by a frame dwelling house.

14. HOUSE AND LOT on north side of Cameron street, between Fairfax and Lee streets, now known and designated as No. 201½ Cameron street. Lot twelve (12) feet nine (9) inches, more or less, in width by sixty-one (61) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by a frame dwelling house, with the right to use in common with the owner of the lot adjoining on the west, now known and designated as No. 203 Cameron street; an alley two (2) feet four (4) inches wide between said lots.

15. HOUSE AND LOT on north side of Cameron street, between Fairfax and Lee streets, now known and designated as No. 203 Cameron street. Lot twenty-two (22) feet two (2) inches, more or less, in width by sixty-one (61) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by a substantial brick dwelling house, with the right to use in common with the owner of the lot adjoining on the east, now known and designated as No. 201½ Cameron street, an alley two (2) feet four (4) inches wide between said lots.

16. HOUSE AND LOT on north side of Cameron street, between Fairfax and Lee streets, now designated and known as No. 205 Cameron street. Lot twenty (20) feet, more or less, in width by sixty-one (61) feet, more or less, in depth. Improved by a frame dwelling house.
